The Honorable John W. Warner
Chairman, Committee on Armed Services
United State Senate
Washington, DC 20510-6050

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Section 1032 of the Bob Stump National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2003, Public Law No. 107-314, requires that the Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of Energy, and the Director of Central Intelligence shall jointly submit to the congressional defense committees, the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate, and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives a report on the research and development, procurement, and other activities undertaken during the preceding fiscal year by the Department of Defense, the Department of Energy, and the intelligence community to develop weapons to defeat hardened and deeply buried targets.

The report, prepared by the Department of Defense, the Department of Energy, and the intelligence community, is enclosed.

A similar letter has been provided to the other congressional defense committees, the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate, and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives.

Sincerely,

Michael W. Wynne
